

Governor M. Jodi Rell today announced that thousands of Connecticut households have been approved for home heating assistance this winter and thousands more applications are being processed. Information on all the programs is available by calling 2-1-1 – the statewide information helpline. Potential applicants can also visit a comprehensive energy aid Web site. The Web site can be found by clicking on the “CT Energy Resources” link on the State of Connecticut Web site at www.ct.gov . The Governor is encouraging families and senior citizens who need assistance to apply as soon as possible so that their winter needs can be met promptly.
