

Governor M. Jodi Rell today announced that Wednesday, February 10, will be observed as a statewide Day of Mourning for the five people killed in Sunday's explosion at the Kleen Energy power plant in Middletown. Governor Rell ordered Connecticut state flags to be flown at half-staff from sunup to sundown and asked residents to observe a moment of silence at 11 a.m., the approximate time of the explosion that devastated the nearly completed power plant under construction on River Road.
