First Selectman's Corner

The Boards of Selectmen and Finance have met throughout the months of January, February, March and April to work on the Town budget and it was presented to and approved by the voters on May 15th. It has been a challenging job this year but we are pleased that the mill rate will remain the same, at 23.5 mills. The advent of the $57.5 million school building project, the $5.3 million Senior Center expansion project and the current inflationary pressures made the budget process challenging this year.

The members of the 36-1 Buttonball Rd. Committee have completed their mission and presented the Board of Selectmen with their report and recommendations, which the Selectmen voted to approve. Their principal recommendation is that the Town will submit a permit application to the CT DEEP to construct a 100-foot dock across the marsh leading to Horse Neck Creek that would have a 10-foot by 10-foot viewing platform at each end. At the Creek end, there will be a perpendicular ramp that will lead to a small floating dock where the public may launch small boats and kayaks. There is limited public parking on the 3-acre parcel and there will be a simple road that will enable people to drop off small boats near the dock and then park their vehicles. A split rail fence will be installed along the marsh with signage instructing visitors to stay off the marsh. It is expected this will be a two-year project.

Despite trying to negotiate an acceptable agreement with the abutters of the Tantummaheag Landing, the Town and they are at an impasse. The Town's legal counsel asserts that the Landing is part of the Town's Tantummaheag Road and the abutters maintain there is no Town road over the Landing. The Town must now decide what course of action it will take to protect its interests.

Regional District 18 was informed that it has been awarded a $12 million grant to defray some of the expenses related to the school renovation project. This is very good news and the grant will be in addition to the standard State of CT project reimbursements. The School Board formed a Building Committee and the Committee is in the process of recommending a construction manager for the project.

David Roberge, Old Lyme Fire Marshal and Emergency Management Director, was informed by Senator Chris Murphy's office that the Town has been approved for a Congressionally Directed EOC Grant totaling $708,000 to fund 75% of eligible costs to expand the Emergency Operations Center at the Boughton Road Firehouse. At present, the staff are relegated to two small rooms in the Firehouse when they muster to direct responses to large weather events and the Millstone power plant nuclear safety drills. While we wait for more information, we are grateful for this important financial assistance.

You may have noticed Frontier Communications has been very busy installing fiber optic cable service in Old Lyme. Homeowners and businesses may subscribe to the service if they wish.

The Boards of Selectmen and Finance voted to exercise the Town's option to extend the four-year refuse and recycling disposal contract with CWPM. We have been very satisfied with CWPM's service over the last four years and the firm is also handling trash and recycling business that was formerly handled by MIRA in Hartford.

TOWN PROJECT UPDATES

Sound View Sidewalks: The sidewalk project (Hartford Ave. and Rte. 156) and the bus stop project are complete and the Committee has recommended that the Town release the retainage and dissolve the Committee. Thanks to Chair Mary Jo Nosal and the Committee members Jim Lampos, Erik Olsen, Frank Pappalardo and Bonnie Reemsnyder for all their work over the six-year project.

Halls Rd. Improvement Committee: The Committee presented the Village District Overlay Zone to the Zoning Commission at several Public Hearings and, on March 27 2023, the Commission voted 3 to 2 to approve. However, because the Planning Commission made an unfavorable recommendation, the Zoning approval required a "super majority" vote (4 to 1) so the Overlay Zone was not approved.

The Zoning regulations provide for a one-year "cooling off" period before reconsidering the application again, but the Zoning Commission could waive that requirement and revisit the application. The Committee is considering resubmitting the plan with some revisions in the near future.

Bow Bridge: After receiving three design bids for the Bow Bridge over the Lt. River and its approaches, the Committee made a recommendation to the Board of Selectmen and Finance that the bid from AI Engineering of $148,500 be accepted.

The Boards of Selectmen and Finance approved the following Source and Use of Funds proposal:

Sources of Funds	Uses of Funds
ARPA Funds	$135,000
Contingency	$6,000
Total	$154,500
AI Engineering Fee	$148,500
Town Appropriation	$19,500
Total	$154,000

The AI Engineering contract was signed on March 23, 2023 and the firm has started its work.

Sound View Sewers: In April, the WPCA was informed by the CT DEEP that there is a strong possibility that the DEEP will provide a forgivable loan in the range of $14 to 17 million to augment the 25% Clean Water Grant. This is sensational news but the Town and the three private beaches must await written confirmation about this forgivable loan. We have also heard that the State of CT will repave Route 156 from Halls Rd. to approximately Cross Lane this summer. By stopping at Cross Lane, the Town will hopefully be able to install the force sewer main from Sound View to East Lyme before the rest of Rte. 156 is repaved.

Senior Center Building Expansion: Point One Architects has revised its total Senior Center Expansion project cost estimate to be $5, 263,541. This is net of the $281,000 of architectural and design fees that Lyme and Old Lyme have already paid. Lyme and Old Lyme have agreed to split the cost of the project 25% Lyme and 75% Old Lyme, so each Town must ask its voters to approve the gross expenditure ($5,263,541). Old Lyme share is $3,947,656, so Old Lyme has scheduled an informational meeting on June 12th at 7:00 pm that will be ajuroned to a paper ballot vote on June 20 from noon to 8:00 pm. If both towns receive approval, the project could go out to bid in July and construction could start in the fall. Once construction starts, the Senior Center will be closed for about twelve months and its activities will be relocated to other locations.

Ferry Rd. Sidewalk Replacement: The project was delayed due to some technical issues which have been resolved. The Town has asked the State of CT DOT to extend the project end date from August 2023 to August 2024 and our engineer is ready to put the project out to bid this summer. If the bids are acceptable, the project could start after Labor Day and be completed by the end of 2023.

Swan Brook Outlet: In January, the first phase of the project, unclogging the west 36-inch pipe, under the Hawks Nest Beach Club beach, was completed. Then, Machnik Bros. replaced the wood timber crib at the Long Island Sound end of both pipes. During the time the wood crib was being built, sand re-entered the west pipe, so we will have the same contractor return to remove the sand in both pipes and then run a camera through each pipe to determine if there are any seams between the pipes that need to be repaired. Once that is resolved, we hope the new wood crib will prevent sand from accumulating in the pipes.

TOWN BUDGET MEETING

At the Town Budget Meeting on May 15th, the voters approved accepting a 1.88-acre parcel of open space, as required by the Planning Commission, from Greenscapes Development as part of its 8 lot subdivision located at 21 and 39 Buttonball Rd. The subdivision abuts the Black Hall Club. The voters also approved the Town Budget for the fiscal year ending 30 June 2024. Budget information is available in the Town Hall. The voters did not approve the proposal to change the elected positions of Tax Collector and Town Clerk to be appointed positions with terms of six years. Voters expressed concern that the three-person Board of Selectmen would appoint these officials rather than the voters and they thought a six-year term was too long (terms are currently four years).

VETERANS OF OLD LYME

The veterans of Old Lyme enjoyed another wonderful Memorial Day Parade and rendered honors to those who made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of their country. Thanks to the Boy Scouts and veterans for replacing hundreds of American flags at the gravestones of Old Lyme veterans in the eight Town cemeteries throughout town.

MERGER

Congratulations to the Lyme-Old Lyme Chamber of Commerce for merging with the Old Saybrook Chamber of Commerce. Old Lyme businesses may join the Old Saybrook Chamber and take advantage of numerous events and other benefits – all at affordable rates.

LYME-OLD LYME LIONS

The Lyme-Old Lyme Lions recently celebrated their 50th anniversary with a wonderful dinner program at the Old Lyme Inn. President Karen Geisler welcomed several senior State Lions officials and Bob Whitcomb and Morgan Ely were toasted as Charter LOL Lions Club members.

We are pleased to announce that Michelle Pearson has been hired as the new Editor of the Old Lyme Annual Town Report. She will take over for Michele Dickey who served as our editor for 30 years. We congratulate Kathy Hall, on her retirement as the Administrative Assistant in the Building Dept. after 35 years. Can you imagine how many building permits she processed? Last, we learned that Bobby Swaney, who was employed by the Public Works Dept. for 51 years died recently. His knowledge of roads, drainage pipes and all things Public Works was remarkable.

Bring on the summer!

Food Share Garden Embraces Food Waste, Pollinators, & New Volunteers

Lyme Old Lyme Food Share Garden volunteers mobilized in mid-April to pull weeds and push wheelbarrows, spreading compost, wood chips and good cheer. The organization is delighted to be entering its second year of planting, though challenged by the vagaries of Mother Nature, with record highs in April and a frost during the third week of May!

Volunteers have been prepping beds, planting seeds and transplanting seedlings. By the time of publication, frosts will be a distant memory and tasks will have pivoted to harvesting and delivering. Volunteers have also installed a large pollinator garden just outside the garden. Swing by to see the blooms and their pollinating partners!

The Board of Directors has also been communicating with other area giving gardens and United Way, a partnership that has led to the joint application for a grant through Kubota for a tractor. If the LOLFSG is fortunate to be awarded the grant, the equipment will relieve some of the backbreaking work the volunteers do and will allow us to expand the garden's composting capacity. Due to the tremendous community support, the LOLFSG has decided to expand the garden. Preliminary clearing of brush has begun and there are tentative plans to erect fencing later in the summer.

In conjunction with the Solid Waste and Recycling Committee, the LOLFSG has begun a pilot Food Waste collection project within the Library Lane neighborhood. Approximately 12 families have dropped off more than 350 lbs of plant-based items at a "food waste kiosk" at the corner of Dunns Lane and Library Lane. The food scraps are transported to the Food Share garden where it is turned into beautiful compost.

Due to interest in the project, an additional collection site has been installed outside of the garden's main gate. Community members are invited to contribute their fresh or frozen food waste. All plant-based materials are acceptable but please do not include dairy and meat products.

More information, updates and additional photos are available through Facebook or <https://www.lolfoodsharegarden.org/>.

Halls Road Improvements Committee Update

On March 27 the Old Lyme Zoning Commission voted 3-2 in favor of creating the Halls Road Overlay District (HROD). Because the Planning Commission had previously given the HROD a 'negative referral,' it required a 4-1 vote to pass, and the measure failed. The HROD is a significant piece of zoning regulation. It takes significant effort to understand the details. Many of the objections raised were covered by parts of the HROD proposal that apparently were not noticed or were misunderstood. With the support of the Board of Selectmen and the heads of the commissions, we plan to reapply, and to do a better job of explaining the proposal in detail, and answering the objections raised.

The challenges that prompted the effort to make changes along Halls Road still face us. We need to acknowledge the changing business climate and support our retail businesses in the new environment of the coming decades. The people of Old Lyme want a safer, more attractive, walkable, bike-able, mixed-use town center where they can live, work, and shop. Smaller-scale housing remains in short supply, and Halls Road is one place where it could be built without using up the remaining open space. Old Lyme is planning major investments in public improvements, but the Halls Road area also needs to be allowed the option to change for the better. Restricting Halls Road to "commercial only" now tends to favor highway services over all other uses—a thing that no one wants. Guiding our future is an important matter for Old Lyme. The HROD creates the option for a better future.

In the area of improvements to public infrastructure, the town has hired A. I. Engineers (AIE) to proceed with design development of a new pedestrian/cyclist bridge and trails safely connecting our main commercial district on Halls Road with our Arts District and historic town center on Lyme Street. The bulk of the funding for this project is from the ARPA grant awarded last June. In February of this year we also applied for a small grant under the CT Recreational Trails Program to support the bridge and trails. HRIC and the Town will work on required easements and rights-of-way. The work of AIE on the project will include an economic analysis, site survey and assessment, and geo-tech investigation leading to preliminary phased designs. AIE will produce three options (with cost estimates) for creating the bridge and trails. AIE's work will be available for public review, and a final design selected.

Once a final design is approved, AIE will create full construction documents (CDs) for the bridge and trails, and detail the project's permitting requirements. The CDs will also be used to seek grants to cover the construction costs of the project. AIE will assist in seeking grants, and manage the bidding to move the project to the construction phase.

Last year the BSC Group helped Old Lyme apply for a grant under CT-DOT's Local Transportation Capital Improvement Program (LOTCIP). The grant could cover a substantial part of the construction costs for the main improvements planned for sidewalks, lighting, landscaping, etc. along Halls Road. (The bridge and trails are a separate matter, from CT-DOT's point of view.) Our LOTCIP application is also the first formal review of our plans by CT-DOT, and we must wait for their approval to proceed on this part of the plan. The LOTCIP program has many applicants and the waiting list for review is long. This is Old Lyme's first request under LOTCIP, and we hope to see some action on our application in 2024.

Seeking Host Families for International Students

Lyme-Old Lyme Schools is seeking host families for three international high school students for the 2023-24 school year. Families host for a period of 5-6 months, roughly mid-August to December or January to mid-June.

WHAT IS REQUIRED:

We are looking for caring and responsible Lyme-Old Lyme community member(s) with an interest in welcoming a young person into their home.

- Families with small children make excellent host families because young children get the experience of having a "big brother or sister" and the visiting students often enjoy the relaxed atmosphere of practicing their language skills with a younger child.
- Retired couples, singles, and "empty nesters" are great because they sometimes have more time to spend with their student and often enjoy having a young person around the house.
- Families with high school age children are wonderful because host brothers and sisters can quickly get students involved in school and community activities.

AS A HOST FAMILY, YOU WILL:

- Provide room and board
- Involve the student in family activities and chores
- Enrich the student experience by including the student in family, community, and cultural activities
- Host families are compensated financially at a rate of $1,200 per month

If you are interested in becoming a host, please contact James Wygonik, principal of Lyme-Old Lyme High School at: 860-434-1651 or at: wygonikj@region18.org.

A Bit of History

Just what is the Old Lyme Historic District, and how did it come to be?

In order to protect the character of Old Lyme's historic center and the adjacent wetlands along the Lieutenant River, and to prevent ill-planned development, voters approved an Historic District in 1971. That same year, the District, which extends from the south end of Lyme Street to Rose Lane, was added to the National Register of Historic Places. The National Register designation provided essential protection for the town's historic resources in 2017 when the Federal Railroad Administration proposed an overhead rail bypass through Old Lyme.

For over half a century, Old Lyme's Historic District Commission, operating pursuant to state statute and town ordinance, has collaborated with property owners concerning their applications for new buildings and exterior modifications, and for new fences, signs, driveways, walkways, and HVAC units. The Commission regularly approves applications that preserve and enhance the Historic District's special character. During its most recent fiscal year, the HDC approved 38 applications.

The Historic District continues to attract new residential property owners, new businesses in buildings originally constructed for commercial use, and new non-profit organizations that enrich the town's cultural resources. The Lyme Street neighborhood's historic character and scenic charm draw residents and visitors alike for quiet walks, non-profit events, and community celebrations.

Did You Know?

U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice Morrison Waite (1816-1888) was born in Lyme and grew up in the historic house at 27 Lyme Street. During the Court's recesses he summered in town, at times lodging in the Noyes-Beckwith House at 32 Lyme Street.

The town's first "supermarket," the A&P, opened around 1928 in what was known as the Corner Store, on the corner of Lyme Street and Ferry Road across from the Congregational Church. The A&P moved in 1934 to a remodeled building at 34 Lyme Street, today a popular ice cream shop. Hamburger then cost 15 cents a pound; a nickel bought milk, peanut butter, or mayonnaise.

Put Waste in its Place!

Town of Old Lyme residents have more options for properly disposing of their waste – this helps to offset our costs of trash collection and waste management, which are paid for by property taxes. Proper recycling and repurposing of materials reduces the amount of waste we send to incinerators or out-of-state landfills. The town receives money for recycled and repurposed materials, too.

Old Lyme Transfer Station now has a Textile Recycling bin. Drop off your old, unusable clothing, bedding, blankets, towels, sewing remnants and other fabrics that are beyond their useful life and can no longer be worn or resold. Do not throw away these items in your weekly trash. Instead, these can be repurposed into insulation and other industrial uses. See the full list of materials that can be placed in this bin at www.baystatetextiles.com.

There also is a Goodwill donation bin next to the Textile Recycling bin where you can drop off items that can still be worn or used.

Curbside Recycling: Please remember that Old Lyme's curbside single stream recycling of paper, cardboard, tin cans and plastic containers goes in your green container. See the list of What's In /

What's out on page 23. Remember, DO NOT BAG these recyclables – keep them loose, dry and clean.

Plastic bags DO NOT go into your green recycling bin. Instead, please turn them in for the Trex Challenge. Since 2020, Lyme-Old Lyme Schools students have kept over 13,000 pounds of these plastics out of our incinerators and waste stream. These plastic films are repurposed into composite decking and outdoor living products. Look for the bins at LYSB, Old Lyme Town Hall and Phoebe Griffin Noyes Library this summer, as well as at the entrances of Lyme-Old Lyme Schools. Our students win awards for the amount of plastic film they turn in each year.

There are other collection and recycling bins around town. These are not part of the town's trash collection and waste management program. These benefit multiple organizations, including scholarships for Lyme-Old Lyme High School students by the Lyme-Old Lyme Chamber of Commerce. When our town's chamber recently merged with the Old Saybrook Chamber, it arranged for its scholarships to Lyme-Old Lyme students to continue as long as funds are generated for them.

Get Reconnected After Covid

The past few years with Covid have wreaked havoc on all of us. As we are reemerging from these unstable times of isolation, keeping distance, mask wearing, and avoidance of crowded places, anxieties have been at an all time high. We are wired to be connected to others, and covid times have kept us focused on individual needs. The past few years have required us to be disconnected as a community. This has contributed to the increasing anxieties as now we need to reconnect and people are afraid and insecure about this.

Here are a few safe ways to start to find your way back to the community:

First, be aware of others around you—instead of avoiding eye contact by staring at your phone, make that eye contact, smile, maybe even say hello.

Instead of staring at the social media of people you lost touch with or don't know, strike up a conversation with someone while waiting for the dentist, in the grocery store, drug store, etc. You never know when you'll make a new friend.

Secondly, allow time to complete tasks without rushing. We became used to getting in and out of places as fast as possible. Slow down and be tolerant when waiting in line or when things don't go exactly as scheduled. We're still all human and delays happen. Getting irritated only makes you unapproachable. Instead, use this time to talk with someone you're with or someone new.

Connecting with others is difficult sometimes but you never know when it'll make a difference in your day or someone else's day just by smiling.

Animals can make a wonderful difference in our lives.

Recent scientific studies have proven that interacting with animals can decrease levels of cortisol (a stress-related hormone) and lower blood pressure. Other studies have found that animals can reduce loneliness, increase feelings of social support, and boost your mood.

So, what's it like to train an animal to become a therapy pet? Presenters Jean Baur and her dog Rudy will be at the Lyme library to discuss the magic of therapy dogs and give you advice on how you might be able to get training to develop your beloved family pet into a certified therapy animal.

Probate Fees 101

The Probate Court becomes involved when a person dies in order to assist with transferring assets from the name of the deceased person to his or her heirs or beneficiaries under a Will. In our court, which serves a population of approximately 62,000, we saw a rise in decedent's estate matters with the onset of the Covid pandemic, moving from 1,419 decedent's estates in 2019 to 1,523 in 2020 and eventually 2,371 in 2021. There is much information and misinformation about what the cost is to invoke the assistance of the Probate Court in a decedent's estate.

Calculating probate fees is very fact specific, but it is my hope that the guidelines below will assist court users in understanding how fees might be assessed for their own estates.

In a hypothetical scenario where the husband of a couple dies first, and the couple owns a house valued at $500,000, a joint bank account valued at $100,000, a jointly owned car valued at $20,000, and the husband has a retirement account valued at $350,000, all of which pass to his surviving spouse, the probate fee would be calculated as follows: half of the value of the jointly owned assets are attributed to the husband's estate, namely house, bank account and car, or  $($250,000 + $50,000 + $10,000 = $310,000)$ . The retirement account is solely owned, so its entire value of $350,000 is added to the $310,000 in joint assets  $= $660,000$ . Since all property passes to the surviving spouse, the $660,000 in value of the husband's assets is reduced by half, and becomes $330,000. Using the table on this page, the probate fee is then calculated as follows:  $($330,000 - $10,000) * 0.0035 = $1,120.00 + $150.00 = $1,270.00$

FOR ANYONE DYING ON OR AFTER JULY 1, 2016, PROBATE FEES ARE ASSESSED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE FOLLOWING TABLE:

Basis for Computation of Fees	Total Fee
0 to $500	$25
$501 to $1,000	$50
$1,000 to $10,000	$50, plus 1% of all in excess of $1,000
$10,000 to $500,000	$150, plus .35% of all in excess of $10,000
$500,000 to $2,000,000	$1,865, plus .25% of all in excess of $500,000
$2,000,000 to $8,877,000	$5,615, plus .5% of all in excess of $2,000,000
$8,877,000 and over	$40,000

Any portion of the basis for fees that passes to the surviving spouse is reduced by fifty per cent.

Further information about fees associated with decedent's estates can be found in the Connecticut General Statutes, section 45a-107, and online at www.ctprobate.gov/pages/probate-fees-and-expenses. The online calculator is useful, but calculating probate fees is most accurately done by a skilled probate clerk at your local court.

Duck River Garden Club

Mother's Day weekend wouldn't be complete without Old Lyme's Duck River Garden Club plant sale.

This year's sale featured collections of native perennial plants, favorites from members' gardens, herbs and floral hanging baskets. Proceeds support the club's scholarships, public education programs and its civic beautification sites around town. Members serve on teams that replant, weed and water these sites every summer – enjoy the flowerbeds and plantings at Exit 70, Old Lyme Post Office, Town Hall, Lyme Street Firehouse, Sill Lane, Lymes' Senior Center, McCurdy Road/Route 156 and Old Lyme Police Station.

The club congratulates its 2023 high school scholarship recipient Samantha Tan, daughter of Wei Tan and Jianhao Shen of Old Lyme. The Lyme-Old Lyme High School graduate has been an active member of the school's Environmental Club, where she

Intake for the 85th Annual White Elephant Sale

BEGINS JUNE 29, SALE ITSELF OPENS FRIDAY, JULY 14

The perennially popular White Elephant Sale (WES) is back!

The sale, hosted by the Ladies Benevolent Society of the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, will be held Friday, July 14, and Saturday, July 15.

For those new to the town or folk who have never participated before, this sale is one of the main events on both the town and church calendars. It all starts with the intake period when you can drop off unwanted items at the church from your house - perhaps your basement, attic or closets - or yard.

Garage, tag and rummage sales may be everyday affairs, but few, if any, can match the size and color of this one. The sale items are organized into some 20 departments that fill the church buildings as well as every available space on the lawn.

The WES has grown so large that it has become a true "community event" since many of the donations are from non-church members and quite a number of volunteers are also from outside the church.

The sale raises a significant amount of money for missions and good works both locally and throughout the world. Some of the beneficiaries include food pantries, health organizations, family support centers, children's programs, literacy volunteers, affordable housing, and disaster relief worldwide.

Mark your calendars now for the dates of this year's sale.

Intake begins on Thursday, June 29, and runs daily from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm through Saturday, July 1. Then there is a three-day break after which intake restarts Wednesday, July 5, through Friday, July 7, again from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm daily.

Intake is always a busy time.

Details of items that will be accepted are on the church website. Note that this year lamps or audiovisual electronics will not be accepted this year due to space limitations.

The sale itself will be held on Friday, July 14, from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm and Saturday, July 15, from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm. Most departments offer items at half-price on the second day. There may be some mask restrictions on inside shopping.

Information

For more information about the sale or if you would like to volunteer to help in any capacity, whether with intake, the sale itself, or clean-up, call the church office at: 860.434.8686 and / or visit: www.fccol.org/wes.

See you at The Sale!

Florence Griswold Museum

OBJECT LESSONS IN AMERICAN ART: Selections from the Princeton University Art Museum, on view at the Florence Griswold Museum June 3 through September 10.

Works from the Princeton University Art Museum's venerable collection have been curated into the traveling exhibition Object Lessons in American Art. Four centuries of Ero-American, African American, and Native American art collectively ask fundamental questions about artistic significance and how the meaning of artwork can change across time, place, and context. Works by Milton Avery, Mary Cassatt, Guerilla Girls, Grace Hartigan, Titus Kaphar, Georgia O'Keeffe, Ammi Phillips, and John Henry Twachtman are among the over 70 pieces on view that offer insight into American history, culture, and society. "We are thrilled to be one of only three stops in the country, and the only one in the northeast, for this inspiring show," states Executive Director Joshua Campbell Torrance. "It's a unique opportunity for our audiences to see works by these and other marquee artists on display in the Florence Griswold Museum galleries."

For the Museum's installation, Associate Curator Jennifer Stettler Parsons added "Object Lessons" from Old Lyme which is also a nod to our connection to Princeton University. Prompted by his wife, artist Ellen Axson Wilson, Woodrow Wilson visited the Lyme Art Colony while he was president of Princeton University (1902-1910). Visitors are encouraged to look at the Wilson objects from the Museum's permanent collection through the lenses of race, class, and gender and consider the Wilsons' complicated legacy.

This exhibition is curated by Karl Kusserow, John Wilmerding Curator of American Art, Princeton University Art Museum, and overseen at the Florence Griswold Museum by Jennifer Stettler Parsons Ph.D., Associate Curator. This exhibition is made possible by the leadership support of the Terra Foundation for American Art. At the Florence Griswold Museum, support comes from the Department of Economic and Community Development, Connecticut Office of the Arts, HSB, The Aeroflex Foundation, The David T. Langrock Foundation, Mrs. Kathryn Parsons and Mr. J. Geddes Parsons, Mr. Wayne Harms and Mrs. Barbara Harms, and WSHU Public Radio, as well as donors to the Museum's Annual Fund.

Open Space Commission Honors Eleven Grads from Lyme - Old Lyme High School

Eleven graduating seniors from Lyme-Old Lyme High School were honored by the Old Lyme Open Space Commission in April for their volunteer work on town conserved land. Each student lent a hand on town stewardship projects over their four years at LOLHS via the school's Environmental / Community Service Club. The students received certificates signed by First Selectman Tim Griswold and Asst. Principal Jeanne Manfredi, as well as Open Space T-shirts. The Commission also recognized Environmental Club advisor and faculty member Heather Fried who supervised the students' site work.

The club's work included clearing invasive plant growth, building bridges and clearing sites in Ames Open Space for two wildlife viewing areas. The latter were created along the Black Hall River (also called Bucky Brook) so hikers might spend time watching beavers, herons, egrets, wood ducks and other animals.

Other young volunteers assisting the Open Space Commission included college interns who spent last summer working on the town's Ferry Landing Wildlife Refuge, and high school students who worked with raw wildlife video footage to edit videos now posted on the town YouTube channel. The Commission expects to employ a college intern again this summer and a high school student for video editing.

All the students' contributions are sincerely appreciated by the Commission. The Open Space Commission hopes that these young citizens will find their time spent working in nature to be an inspiration leading to their future involvement as stewards responsible for protecting natural beauty and heritage in Old Lyme or wherever their paths lead.

Connecticut River Conservancy: What We Know About PFAS

PFAS IS SHORT FOR PER- AND POLYFLUOROALKYL substances and refers to a group of over 4000 human-made chemicals found in everyday household products such as nonstick pans, food packaging, waterproof jackets, and carpets, as well as personal care items such as shampoo and shaving cream, and even industrial materials such as aqueous film forming foam used to fight fires at military bases and commercial airports.

PFAS compounds are useful because they are designed to be resistant to breakdown and impart stain and water-resistant properties to products. Unfortunately, they continue to resist breakdown and become “forever chemicals,” persisting in the environment for decades. They can bioaccumulate (accumulate in tissues) and biomagnify (increase in concentration as you move up the food chain) in living organisms resulting in negative health effects, including cancer. For these reasons and more, they are a serious contaminant that is a global problem.

One thing that is important to understand about PFAS both locally and nationally is that this is an emerging area of science. There is, unfortunately, a lot that scientists don't fully know or understand yet about PFAS, how they move through the environment, and the full effects of chronic exposure on humans, wildlife, and the environment. Even analytical methods for accurately measuring the different PFAS compounds are still being developed and refined.

If you are concerned about PFAS, it will be important to keep up as new science emerges and puts what is understood currently into context. For example, there are no federally agreed upon standards in the US for exposure to PFAS through water, eating, or household use yet.

The research needed to set these standards is still being done. Individual states have enacted drinking water standards and have issued fish consumption advisories where they feel it is appropriate, but these will likely be adjusted as our knowledge regarding the environmental health effects of PFAS increases.

Connecticut River Gateway Commission

FIFTY YEARS AGO, IN MAY 1973,
Connecticut's legislature established the Connecticut River Gateway Commission to "prevent deterioration of the natural and traditional riverway scene for the enjoyment of present and future generations."

The river's unhealthy condition and the prospect of a national park stretching from Canada to Long Island Sound bringing a possible federal override of local control prompted political action.

Senator Abe Ribicoff quoted an observer, "unless steps [are] taken to protect this resource [the Connecticut River] it could easily turn into a marine version of the Berlin Turnpike."

The legislation required five of the eight lower river towns — Chester, Deep River, East Haddam, Essex, Haddam, Lyme, Old Lyme and Old Saybrook — to join the compact for it to become official. All eight towns voted to join.

In addition to the towns, representatives from a regional planning agency and a designee of the CT Department of Energy and Environmental Protection's Commissioner serve on the Gateway Commission today.

The Commission operates within a 21,500-acre Conservation Zone encompassing the river estuary and ridgelines that overlook the water. Its toolbox includes regulatory zoning standards, land protection and education.

The Gateway Commission takes an even-handed approach in its responsibility, recognizing that the lower river valley's beauty makes the area desirable for development. A collaborative relationship with land use commissions, town planners and zoning enforcement officials helps the Commission strike a balance between preservation and development.

Since 1973, the Gateway has protected 1,100 acres of land in all eight River towns in partnership with towns, land trusts, private parties and the State.

The Connecticut River Gateway Commission website is found at: <https://ctrivergateway.org/> and provides information on its mission and includes an interactive map so you may check if your home is within the conservation zone.

Commission Awarded at CLCC Conference

COMMISSION PARTICIPATION

The Connecticut River Gateway Commission has been honored by the Connecticut Land Conservation Council with a "2023 Excellence in Conservation Award."

CLCC recognizes organizations and individuals who make a substantive contribution to the success of land conservation and projects that serve as a guide to or can be replicable by other land trusts and communities in Connecticut.

The Commission's Award recognized its 50 years of service to lower Connecticut River valley as well.

The Conservation Award was announced at CLCC's Annual Conference held on March 25, 2023, at Wesleyan University. CLCC's first in-person conference since 2019 was a wonderful success, attracting about 550 people from across the state and region, and even from distant Tasmania.

The Commission offered a workshop in conjunction with the Lyme Land Trust on "Light Pollution and Its Effect on Health and the Environment."

The mission of the Connecticut River Gateway Commission is to preserve the aesthetic and ecological natural beauty of the lower Connecticut River valley for present and future generations.
